A Night to Remember.
Prom 2009

For one night
we set our
differences aside
and this one night
we lived will
never die,
for these memories
we hold so close
in our minds and in our hearts,
time can never part.
Forever young
as we go through life
searching under the rays
of the sun;
look back upon this
one night you
will surely
remember,
for silk ties and
bright eyes make this
a night to remember.
