Willy Wonka

Music and lyrics by
Leslie Bricusse & Anthony Newley

Adapted for stage by

Leslie Bricusse & Tim McDonald

Based on the book

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl

RECOMMENDED FOR AGES 5 AND UP

Who can take a sunrise, sprinkle it with dew and make the world taste good? The candy man can, of course! Five lucky children will meet the most famous candy man in the world – Willy Wonka! Charlie Bucket thinks he doesn't have much hope of winning the golden ticket of his dreams, but you shouldn't underestimate what goes on in Wonka's factory. Charlie doesn't realize that once inside this fantastic factory, he will encounter an interesting assortment of candies, characters and catastrophes. Join Charlie and discover what really happens when you step into this world of pure imagination.

ROGERS
COMPANY

Leave your fears at the starting line and ride alongside Isaac Murphy, a world renowned Kentucky-born African-American jockey, in the race of a lifetime. If ever there were two creatures meant for each other, it's that man and a horse. He rides like the wind and acts like a gentleman, just as Mama raised him. With integrity, dedication, and perseverance, Isaac Murphy is ready to take on the world and inscribe his name as one of the greatest riders in history. Join us in celebration of Lexington's own – a man no one could stop from chasing the wind.

IF YOU GIVE A MOUSE A COOKIE

Based on the book by Laura Joffe Numeroff
Adapted for the stage by J. D. Jordan

ME AND MY FRIENDS

He's back!!! Another adventure begins when your favorite hungry mouse wanders back into the kitchen. And he's just a little mouse –wouldn't you offer him a cookie? But with a cookie, he'll want milk – which leads to straws, scissors, and a big mess! Obviously, this isn't your run-of-the-mill, fuzzy little mouse. Get ready to join a little boy as he discovers how big an adventure he can have without ever leaving his own home.

~Cat

RIVER RAT AND CAT

By Y York

RECOMMENDED FOR AGES 8 AND UP

“ROAR!!!” says Cat stalking River Rat across the riverbank. Playing games like this one is Cat’s favorite thing to do – besides eating of course. Whether it’s constant friendship or a cheese sandwich, Rivy always provides for Cat’s needs. But trouble lurks just down the river, and this unusual friendship faces a mighty clash. Two animals so different shouldn’t be friends anyway, right? Even so, there are times you simply can’t survive the storm alone.

Jingle Bells, Batman Smells

Room 1

By Allison Gregory

Adapted from the book series
by Barbara Park

RECOMMENDED FOR AGES 5 AND UP

When you see the words "Dear First Grade Journal," you know you're about to find out what really happens in elementary school. Junie B. Jones tells it like it is – especially when it involves Blabbermouth May: TATTLETALE EXTRAORDINAIRE. These girls better watch out; otherwise they will miss all the holiday activities, and Junie B. will NOT let that happen. Maybe this is the year she learns what the holidays are really about – peace and goodwill to all...that's grown up talk for "be nice to everyone" - even tattletales.

Anne Frank And Me

By Cherie Bennett

RECOMMENDED FOR AGES 8 AND UP

Nicole Burns is your average American teenager. She has lots of hobbies, close friends and a huge crush on the cutest boy in school. She can't waste time with history, especially an old diary that everyone thinks is forged. But an accident transports her back seventy years to Paris, France, and Nicole uncovers what it is like to live as a Jew in Nazi occupied France. Could this be a dream – or is it real? One thing is for sure; the experience makes Nicole realize that the past is relevant and alive!

THE PRINCESS WHO LOST HER HAIR

A World Premiere
By Jeremy Kisling
Based on an Akamba legend

RECOMMENDED FOR AGES 8 AND UP

What does a lowly bird know about coming weather? And how dare it suggest that the princess give up some of her beautiful hair! Jealousy drives the foolish bird's prediction, or so the princess hopes. But the drought ravages the realm, and everything the bird foretold comes to pass. How can you dream when your most valued possession is snatched away? Hope can't live in such a harsh climate. Now the fate of the entire kingdom rests with a hungry beggar boy, Muoma – and only his dream holds the secret to saving the land.

Click, Clack, Moo: Cows That Type

Adapted from the book by Doreen Cronin

Illustrations by Betsy Lewin

Adapted by James E. Grote

Music by George Howe

Lyrics by George Howe and James E. Grote

RECOMMENDED FOR AGES 5 AND UP

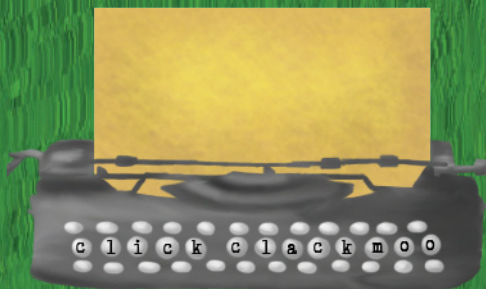

Farmer Brown has a problem – he usually loves the noises on his farm, but ever since those cows found the old typewriter, all day long it's click, clack, moo – click, clack, moo – clickety, clack, moo! And typing cows are just the beginning. An unusual note launches a milk revolution, and the chickens want in on it too. Did you ever hear of cows that type or farm animals that go on strike? Well, Farmer Brown does not know what to think! His life may get a little less moo-sical, but you and Duck are sure to have a quacking good time!

DESTINATION: IMAGINATION YOUR JOURNEY NEVER ENDS

ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

Lexington Children's Theatre strives to keep our productions accessible to the entire community by keeping ticket prices affordable; patrons only pay 50% of what it actually costs us to produce each play. We depend on the generosity of the community to offset production costs. Our Development Department has implemented many ways for your family to help us achieve our goal of affordable programming. You have the opportunity to donate through our Seat Plate Program, Helping Hands Wall, The Walk of Fame Stars, Adopting a Character and many more. For more information on how you can contribute, contact our Development Director at 859.254.4546 ext. 230.

Lexington Children's Theatre offers classes year-round for emerging artists ages 4 and up. During the school year, LCT offers after-school and Saturday morning classes as well as one day workshops on Saturdays in our own facility. We also offer full-day or week-long workshops that coincide with Fayette County Public School Holidays like Fall and Spring Break and Teacher In-Service days. Summer classes include week long performance-based classes based on your children's favorite books.

THEATRE SCHOOL

SPECIAL EVENTS

Lexington Children's Theatre holds several special events throughout the year. These events are designed to give families an up close experience with our theatre while helping us keep ticket prices affordable. Past events have included Celebrity Curtain Call, Cinderella's Ball, Brunch with the Herdmans, and Family Dinner Theatre with Chick-Fil-A. Check out our website for upcoming events throughout this season.

BIRTHDAY PARTIES

Let us host your child's next birthday party and give them an experience they will never forget. We can host a workshop of your choice such as "Hogwarts Sorting Ceremony" or "Be a Clown." If you prefer, design a birthday party around one of our upcoming performances and have the cast of the show sing to your special prince or princess. Contact our Group Sales Associate for more information at 859.254.4546 ext 223.
