Most importantly, HCA would like to show its appreciation to the young adult groups who provided insight and leadership during the development of the handbook, so that it would speak to the realities of Hawai'i teenagers:

- AmeriCorps VISTA
- College Connections
- God's Country Waimanalo
- Waianae Youth Summer Media Program
- YWCA Youth Advisory Board

In particular, HCA would like to recognize and commend the chief illustrators and layout/design specialists who, through their creativity and determination, truly made the handbook what it is today. These students of YouthVision, a nonprofit organization, are:

- Isaac Agiga
- Michael Agiga
- Jacob Luning-Hoshino
- Shellie Benjamin
- Megan Amodo
- Tiana Shiroma
- Jonah Luning-Hoshino

*Bios and pictures included in the back of the handbook.
