

American Textile History Museum
Lowell, MA | April 17 - July 25

a Light of Cambodian Children project

Your company can help bring world-wide attention to the heroic survivors of the Khmer Rouge genocidal regime and their resilient survival stories.

THANK YOU

SPONSORSHIP LEVELS

	Nationwide Recognition and all exhibition sites for the next Five Years	Recognition in commemorative book given to all participating survivors	Acknowledgement in all event press releases and media outlets	Invitation to exclusive Preview Reception on April 16, 2010	Recognition in the Stevens Exhibition Gallery at ATHM	Advertisement in Event Programs	ATHM Admission for company	ATHM Admission for provided on your behalf for low-income youth and elders
Platinum ($5000 +)	*	*	*	6 invitations	*	Full Page	12 passes	25 passes
Gold ($2500 - $4999)		*	*	4 invitations	*	3/4 Page	10 passes	15 passes
Silver ($1500 - $2499)			*	2 invitations	*	1/2 Page	8 passes	10 passes
Bronze ($500 - $999)					*	1/4 Page	6 passes	5 passes
Copper ($250 - $499)						Business card	4 passes	N/A
General ($100 - $249)						Listing	2 passes	N/A

Sponsor by March 30, 2010 for inclusion in our program book and time sensitive advertisements for the ATHM exhibit.

More Than A Number, a project of Light of Cambodian Children
 Additional Information at info@reaksmey.org | 978.275.1822

Corporate Sponsorship

1. Choose a level.

- Platinum
- Gold
- Silver
- Bronze
- General

2. Provide Contact Information.

Name: _____

Company: _____

Title: _____

E-mail: _____

Phone: _____

Address: _____

_____

3. Send Payment.

Make Checks Payable to:
Light of Cambodian Children, Inc
Memo: More Than A Number
P.O Box 1324
Lowell, MA 01853

or sponsor online at:
www.reaksmey.org

For additional information: info@reaksmey.org | 978.275.1822

thank you for your support

Exhibition Preview Reception

Hosted by Light of Cambodian Children & American Textile History Museum

You are invited to celebrate the opening of

More Than A Number Exhibit

in a vibrant tropical, Khmer-inspired event
featuring hors d'oeuvres, beverages,
dance performance & instrumental music.

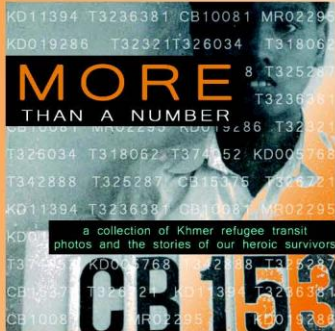

American Textile History Museum

Friday, April 16, 2010 | 5:30PM - 7:30PM

491 Dutton Street | Lowell, Massachusetts

RSVP required by April 9

By Invitation Only to ATHM & LCC members, participating survivors, partners, and sponsors.

Tropical or Traditional Khmer attire encouraged.

RSVP by April 9, 2010

ATHM: mcaulfield@athm.org
978.444.0400 x246

or

LCC: info@reaksmey.org
978.275.1822

American Textile History Museum
491 Dutton Street
Lowell, Massachusetts 01854
978-441-0400
www.athm.org

If you can not join us at the Preview Reception, we invite you back on Saturday April 17th for the public GRAND OPENING and opening day events.

More Than a Number will highlight Cambodian life before, during, and after the genocide. The exhibit will include artwork by Rachel Faller and Khmer artists Chanthou Oeur and Yary Livan, transit number photos and stories collected from Cambodian American individuals and families, along with survivor video testimonies by filmmaker Socheata Poeuv, dance costumes, textiles, and various artifacts used in the healing process. Free with museum admission.

April 17, 2010 Events

Film Screening | "Sleepwalking Through the Mekong" follows Los Angeles-based band Dengue Fever on their recent journey to Cambodia. Special Guest: Director John Pirozzi. 1:30 - 3:15PM

Genocide Coping Strategies Panel led by George Chigas & Linda Saphan with survivors and field experts. 3:30 - 5:00PM

A project of Light of Cambodian Children, Inc., in collaboration with American Textile History Museum, Voice of Cambodian Children, Lowell National Historical Park, Khmer Legacies Project, Cultural Organization of Lowell, Angkor Dance Troupe, and Lowell Community Health Center.

Tropical or Traditional Khmer attire encouraged.

RSVP with total number of guests in your party by April 9, 2010

ATHM: mcaulfield@athm.org
978.441.0400 x246

or
LCC: info@reaksmey.org
978.275.1822

American Textile History Museum
491 Dutton Street
Lowell, Massachusetts 01854
978-441-0400
www.athm.org

More Than a Number will highlight Cambodian life before, during, and after the genocide. The exhibit will include artwork by Rachel Faller and Khmer artists Chanthou Oeur and Yary Livan, transit number photos and stories collected from Cambodian American individuals and families, along with survivor video testimonies by filmmaker Socheata Poouv, dance costumes, textiles, and various artifacts used in the healing process.

Please also plan to join us on April 17th for the public Grand Opening of the exhibit and two special programs. Programs are free to the public. Admission required for entrance to the exhibition.

April 17, 2010 Events

Film Screening | “Sleepwalking Through the Mekong” follows Los Angeles-based band Dengue Fever on their recent journey to Cambodia. Special Guest: Director John Pirozzi. 1:30 - 3:15PM

Genocide Coping Strategies Panel led by George Chigas & Linda Saphan with survivors and field experts. 3:30 - 5:00PM

A project of Light of Cambodian Children, Inc., in collaboration with American Textile History Museum, Voice of Cambodian Children, Lowell National Historical Park, Khmer Legacies Project, Cultural Organization of Lowell, Angkor Dance Troupe, and Lowell Community Health Center.

